

T O B E O R N O T T O B E

King and Sceptre pollsters recently attempted to probe behind the rather ordinary exteriors of fellow students and have discovered the secret desires and some high ambitions hidden there. Many of the Kearney Queens longed for the simple life in a rose-covered cottage with a certain someone, but others had visions of exciting careers and daring deeds.

Julie Farmen will make her TV debut as the Jolly Green Giant.
 Carol Hanley hopes to manufacture a hair straightener that really works.
 Karen Adams wants to be a Go-Go Girl in the Peace Corps.
 Linda Perry wishes to be a successful secretary without a typewriter.
 Kathy Lupo decided she'll be Head Nurse in Pediatrics at Northside.
 Barbara Ellen Smith hopes to be Principal of BKHS some day.
 Rosemary Dunlap hopes to be the first woman to swim the Arctic Ocean.
 Rita Lotti has visions of being interpreter for John-John Kennedy in Spain.
 Joan Cannon leaves to become Head of Rochester Public Library.
 Kathy Flor aims to be a model with her triplet daughters.
 Nancy Holowka wishes to be a calorie counter at Woolworth's pizza counter.
 Pat Kirchgessner is rarin' to be left tackle for the Green Bay Packers
 Diane Thayer will use her talents to read gas meters for RG & E.
 Anita Centola wishes the mere basics of life - a millionaire and a mansion.
 Suzanne Guzzetta would like to keep chasing "Peppy" down the expressway.
 Kathy Coyle resolves to be chief taster in a ketchup factory.
 Felice Cerquone connives to be secret agent .00-9⁶⁵ in pursuit of Sean Connery.
 Babara Gramlich hopes to take the place of Mickey Mouse.
 Donna DeMay expects to be Miss America in 1984.
 Barbara Parks aspires to chasing across Europe in search of the youngest Rothschild heir.
 Judy Maxwell sees it to be worthwhile gaining 30 pounds in 10 years.
 Cheryl Papia hopes to own and operate Internal Revenue Bureau in Okeg-Swamp
 Judy Oldenburg aspires to paint the bleachers at the Yankee Stadium.
 Cynthia Sulanowski, Virginia Ehrstein and Marie Tubiolo hope to be on their way to Graduation on the Portland Avenue Bus twenty years from now.
 Donna Wahl favors being a chicken plucker in a poultry factory.
 Kathy Dangler hopes to make her appearance on the 1970 Dr. Kildare programs.
 Debbie Baader plans to emerge as "a real, cool Greenwich Village beatnik."
 Carole Bianchi plans to enter a Buddhist Nunnery and have her head shaved.
 Kathy Thorpe wishes to work as a "candy taster" at the Fanny Farmer Stores.
 Lucianne Gugliandro desires to be the winner of the Indianapolis Five Hundred.
 Sherry Wasala will own Lollypop Farm and provide gold plated clawing posts.
 Marianne Vetter admits that in five years she'll have Security Trust Bankrupt.
 In twenty years Marylou Goodman will still be visiting Sister Marcian.
 Roberta Lapa hopes to develop the first line of madras computers.
 Joanne Hanley, star of Bolshoi Ballet will dance the "Dying Swan" with Andy D.
 MaryAnn Sementelli expects to be elected to the French Academy for her writing of several French books.
 Kiathy Merle hopes to have her own basketball team.
 Charlotte will be attending her son's Bar Mitzvah in 16 years.
 Dorene Kubiak plans to teach--others to spell her name correctly.
 In twenty years Carol Cappy will still be working on the 1966 Yearbook.
 Sheila Lytle has hopes of designing high fashion clothes in Paris.
 Lesia Kysil aspires to painting Rockfeller's picture on the Albany Capitol.
 Donna Dzierzanowski will still be looking for someone with a longer name.
 Nancy Alaimo hopes to start an exclusive collegiate shop for teens.
 Maureen Bleier hopes to perfect the Blier-lier detector.
 Marianne Camarda hopes to mother all Pop-Sickles...
 Kathy Curatalo plans to be head of Clover Pool Corp. for weekend parties.
 Angela Fortunato craves to compose an up-to-date version of the Aeneid.
 Diane Guadagnino has her heart set on opening a "Honda" shop.
 Elaine Heveron delights in planning the future Heveron-Cheveron Gas Stations.
 Diane Kazmierski chooses to open a combination Ice Cream and Pickle Bar.

Myrna Renkert follows her call to open an orphanage for lost golf balls.

Charlene Schneider has decided to start a cushioned desk factory.

Mary Raniewicz will join Myrna Renkert in her project and then persuade her to join the WAVES in conjunction with the ARMY.

Kathy Rogers and Norma Terio plan to be managers of "How to Ride a Honda"; Inc.

Barbara Mahoney hopes to spend her college years writing letters to Bengels.

Pat Modzel aspires to becoming a foreign missionary or tax collector.

Kristine Nomeika longs for the day she can mesmerize an audience as a concert pianist. She already has "her foot in the door."

Margaret Neubauer has an eye on being the poker champ for Cosa Nostra.

Donna Stoffel plans to start a lonely Hearts Club for foreign exchange students.

Lydia Vialette will dedicate her life to sending prom gowns from Panama.

Maria Smits is willing to run a hospital for one-eyed cats hit three times.

Carolyn Walz plans to be a woman surgeon with one aim - to meet all those very handsome interests.

Nancy Griffin craves to train Future Olympic Swimmers.

Sue Bartash sees herself as a potential "too-big shoe loaner".

By 1975, Bonnie Bartlett hopes to have eaten the world's supply of Jell-o

Kathy Coyle plans to write a book on "Enunciation" and how to speak at the rate of 500 words a Minute."

Angela Vigna is ambitious enough to own 20 Wegman stores and the boss in 10 yrs.

Chris Mancuso has volunteered to teach "Speed Typing with Two Fingers or Less."

Pat Faust envisions herself as a mathematician solving the Einstein theory.

Mary Lou Foley, principal at Wilton, plans to have special lockers for shoe boots.

Lucia Gullo has a fondness for practicing psychiatry and psychology on her 12 children.

Jeanne Geyer hopes to be the first girl to make ALL-AMERICAN.

Karen Czarnowsky is desirous of becoming McQuaid's first woman principal/

Jackie Zick plans to be Mrs. America of 1970.

Honora Hickey plans to be in a Broadway theater - sweeping up after shows.

Kathy McAniff has her heart set on sitting on the Brooklyn Bridge fishing for ear rings while drinking a can of Metrecal.

Mary Knauf desires to edit "How to Get Things Straight at A student Council Meeting."

Lucille Pancione would love to teach Driver Ed and How to Drive in the Country.

Sandy Smith is willing to brave cold days for the privilege of leading the Color Guard for the next 10 years to Carvel's.

Kathy Magavero will have the broadest shoulders in five years.

Joyce Consler will be the first woman on the moon --earthshinning.

Karen Thompson will win a scholarship to Iona College.

Sue Erbland will manage her own baseball team 1 girl 8 boys.

Ann White will paper her living room pink--with detention slips.

Predictions for our Seniors

Ron Adams will be a pace setting track star.
Eric Alchowiak will invent a radio-controlled Honda.
Chuck Ange -- will die laughing at his own jokes and first graduate of Ballet.
Ed Andrews -- will be a sugar crisp counter.
Joe Arcarese -- will be an instep salesman.
Fred Bleier -- will be a base ball player with I-strain (doubling as fog horn)
Jerry Cellura -- will be a librarian.
Paul Ciraldi -- will be the world's tallest gidget or shortest giant.

Paul Clement -- will be convinced that blondes are more fun.
Bill Clemens -- wwill be an English diction teacher.
Rip Coleman -- will finally be an admiral.
Mike Critelli --- will be a human parrott specializing in stale joked.
Paul Critelli -- will replace Charlie Brown in the funnies.
Bob Crouse -- will stand out in the field of HIGHER education.
Chuck Dennehy -- will have to take a second shot.
Chris Enos -- will be a star singer for the Salvation Army Band.

[illegible]

Larry Moran -- will be Tugboat Annie's husband.
Rich Pero -- will be the first canonized witch doctor.
Pat Shatzel -- will be teaching diction at Hairvard U.
Phil Smith -- will be the obly "yes, dear" husband out of 4A
Jim Yaeger -- will set the all-tome attendance record at Dayton.
Joe Struble -- will leave a jet propelled bus for students on the Portland Ave.
Walt Szarlacki -- will have his 18th birthday party at Cal's.
Rich VanHenahen -- will be a civil engineer for Webster's first sewage system.
Dick Thomas -- will be birdwatcher and zookeeper of duck pond.
Greg Wroblewski -- will coin the longest word in the english language and not prounounce it.
Mike Moffatt -- will be the first Irish Christian Brother with a Honda.
Dan Oberst -- will probably be the class's first college drop-out.
Mike Soehner -- will be the first peroxidized Quirk to take Donna to Cal in a Corvair.
Bob Steinglein -- will be art exhibitor for DeMay's studios..
Manny Weiss -- will replace Jose Greco.

Paul Albert ___ will leave his latin trot to Bro. Leavy.
Gerry Andolina will soon be the leader of Hell's Angels.
Tom Baily -- will be president of the Yale's alumni club.
Andy Byrne -- will be voted one of the ten Best Dressed men of 1970.
Joe Casciani -- will run the first 6 minute mile.
Dennis Drew -- will be the world's first muscian electrocuted by his own guitar.
John Englert -- will be p̄aying champagne music for John Englert.

Pat Goonan -- will some day be on the other end of a spotlight.
Bill Guldenschuh -- will emcee the 1970 version of Hullybaloo.
Paul Harradine -- will form a singing group "Paul, Paul and Pat".
Vic Jankowski -- will be first class astronut--he's in the clOuds already.
Roman Jesien --- by 1970 will be the leader of the Metractal for lunch bunch.
Andy Langkopf -- will get the part of "Lumquift" Shultz in Hoganañ Heroes in 1970

Bob Lewandowski -- will be the S.Hurok of the class.
Jim MacPherson -- will die with his boots on.
Tony Mangione -- by 1970 will start picking on girls his own size.
James Minardi -- will be dancing with the Bolshoi --if they do Oklahoma..
John Morris -- will be swinging from the "Purple Tree"
Bill Morrison -- will be mayor and still be skipping council meetings.
Roger Palma -- will be Kearney's Davis Cup finalist.
Paul Principino -- will attend council meetings for Bill Morrison.

Pat Pulvino -- will wear a black shirt to graduation.
Gene Read -- will lose 30 lbs and imitate Al Hirtz
Mike Rees -- by 1970 will still be back stage at Keraney.
Mike Ritz -- will buy his own movie house.
Tim Rock -- by 1970 will finally beat Jeanne in the 100 yd dash.
Joe Ruffino -- will be editor of Playboy.
Ray Sickels -- will be successful selling popsicles in summer and icicles in winter.
Jim Stockslader -- will give up singing for dancing.
Norb Szymula -- will give up professional baseball for a new musical.
Bob Tomasso -- will be a pipe-fitter.
Doug Urban -- will finally get a part in a play without graying his hair.
Steve Voll -- by 1970 his bowling average will reach his school average.

Mike Wahl -- will become a famous comic strip artist for Lonney Tunes.
Dan Walsh -- will invent a sousaphone he can carry.
Ward Wilson -- will be catching for the Hoboken Zephers.
Joe Yonder -- will live the rest of his life off science grants.
Dan Young -- will golf a record breaking 69 ----at Sea Breeze.
Bill Young -- will vote himself Casanova of 1970.

Doug Johnson -- will specialize in nose jobs.
John Archetko -- will be head chef at Sing Sing.
Jack Barnard -- will some day out-wrestle his brother.
Rick Brown -- will bequeath his dancing tights to BK.
Mike Callan -- will be lead cellist for Hicksville symphonia.
Gary Camp -- will some day find a girl his size.
Bob Case -- will get an agricultural deferment from the draft.
Frank Choromanaskis -- will change his name so he can spell it.
Sam Coco -- will be dean of dorms at Vassar.
Jim Dauphinee -- will set the record for the world's longest party..

Bob DeRoller -- wills his hair to landscape the soccer field
Phil Dollard -- will mix drinks at the Hawaiian Room.
John Dorofy -- will be the first BK man on the moon.
Pete Elliott-- will choreograph for the Bolshoi.
Paul Figler -- will stand still on stage.
Jim Flynn -- will be Grand Marshall for all Rochester parades.th
Terry Gardner -- will be a go-go boy at Bill Grays.
Tom Healy -- will buy a Honda which does not clash with his hair.

Mike Kellogg -- will leave his locks to Mr. Shahin.
John Kurto -- by 1970 will have chosen one of the twins.
Joe Badali -- by 1971 will have chosen the other.
Rich Larter --&&Tome Henricks will manufacture ice-cubes in Alaaska.
Randy Macksamie -- will finally get a lead without Mary Jean.
Tim Mellen -- will bequeath to BK.---his sister.
Ernie Myer -- by 1970 will finally get to Florida.
Doug Miller -- by 1970 will be allowed to take dancing lessons.

Don Monacell -- by 1970 will find a new girl shorter than he.
Tom Monnat -- by 1970 will get his drivers license.
Den Muio -- will finally get a lead in a musical.
Dan O'Connor -- will leave his "spoolers" to any girl.
Dave Palmer -- will change his name to Arnold.
John Scheid -- will join the navy and get sea-sick on deck of A.M.B. Conquest.
Rick Shewman -- will invent a plug for his vacuum cleaner that can't be pulled out.
John Vespoli & Dave Sawnor & Jim Walters will all marry nice Polish girls from Cleveland.

Bob Weaver -- will become a Yoga instructor in the Job Corps.
Bob Weigand and Tom Yaeger -- will marry nice Polish girls from south Cleveland.
Gene Zito -- will be a soap-box orator in Hyde Park.

Larry Belli -- will teach math at BK/
Ed Blazes -- will be teaching art in BK
Pete Bryant -- will leave all his note books to Ed Blazes so he will know what to teach.

Bill Cala -- because of this year will major in history.
Lou Caputo -- will get a job as night watchman because he's used to sleeping from 8 to 3 in the day.
Joe DeCarlo and Vince DeLaura -- will marry nice Polish girls from North Cleveland
John DeVoldre -- will play for the Redwings if he makes the farm team.
Tom Erbland -- will form his own color guard -- one girl.
Rich Fox -- in 1970 will attend his girls graduation --- from St. Thomas.
John Gefell -- will con a track letter without running a race or &&&&& practice.
Tony Gross -- will become the top brew-master of Rochester area.
Greg Hamlin -- will do the lighting for Bill Meehan's first play.
Ron Helminski -- will invent the first hookless bowling ball

Tom Jackson -- will leave, Freddy, his string bass to some small Freshman.
Lou Joy -- by 1970 will still be out with the inn crowd.
Marty Keller -- by 1970 will be golf pro at Durand.
Greg Kirchgessner -- will be maintenance man for Miglioratti's vending machines.
Urban Kress -- will be the best hair-dresser in the business.
Bob May -- will pass geometry.
Armond Miale -- will give boxing lessons.
Larry Miller -- will be head "bull-frog" distributor for Sibley's Pet Shop.
Ron Nyhan -- by 1970 will realize the curtain has closed on Macbeth.

Brendan O'Brien will still be his brother's keeper.
Kevin O'Brien -- by 1970 will have passed the bar.
John Pillittere -- by 1970 will have left the wee four for the big five.
Tom Rood -- will be dunking ----- for doughnuts.
Jim Salber -- by 1970 Jim will have "brought in" a fish of his own.
Jim Schneider -- in 1970 Jim will probably still be spending time over at Mercy.
Mike Sofia -- in 1970 will 'l making the rounds of his vending machines.
Dan Starks -- will kick the incotine habit.
Al Tabor -- will get a new car for summer school.
Jim Trott -- will be lynched by one of the Henchmen.
Dave Werner -- will be able to take two.
Mike Werner -- will be the proud owner of Mike's Outlet for sawed of dungarees.
Don Zientara -- will leave as a Magazine prize one slightly undersized Honda.

Mike Fitzpatrick -- might just go to the air force.
George Grass -- will be important in business for his powers of persuasion.
Gerry Hartwick -- will probably carry much weight in the world of finance
Mike Holowka -- will be starting goalie on the Fisher Hockey Team.
Doug Klem -- will open his own ceiling business.

John Knope -- will someday find a girl who may talk to him without fighting.
Rich Lombard -- will be the best mortician in the business, he's got what it takes
John McConnell -- will write a book on How to succeed without really tiring
Rick Mileo --& Joe Miniscie --will marry nice polish girls from east Cleve;and Don Marshall -- will marry an Irish girl from Irondequoit.
Walt Mroczek -- will write speechers for Tom Potter's compaigne for president.
Bill Rahn -- will be head tympanist for Genesee Drum factory.
Mike Repp -- wwill get lost in New York City.
Ed Rosenbower -- will someday become sick, one wayb or another.
Jim Ryan -- will own and operate his own Suzuki Outlet Shop.
Pat Shevlin -- will leave BK a Xerox copier for Bro. McCullagh.

John Stokes -- will become the marine corps greatest symbol player.
George Tedone -- will go to Florida during Easter.
Bill Tehan -- will make heroes at Amiel's.
Tom Trott -- will be best mortician in Havensack.
Joe Tubiolo -- will blow his own horn.
Pat Uttaro -- will someday find a girl smaller than him.
Steve Yaeger -- leave a plaque for his spot outside Bro. Killelea's office.

John Bacon -- will bring home the bacon from Whakaki.
John Bechtold -- will sign a peace truce with Bro. Barwin.
Ron Carrillo & Bob Ippolito will marry nice polish girls from West Cleveland
Dah Cole -- 1077 will be Mr. U.S.M.C. at Paris Island.
Conheady U. Idiot ----!!!
Ron Guidone -- will be head designer for Ford's mustang.
James Lake -- will leave his cast as a trophy for the Tournament of Kings.
Bob Madara -- will some day be Pope.
Bill May will leave his fake ID card for Cal's
John Melich -- will be bald by 1970.
Don Miglioratti -- will head Rochester's mafia by 1970.
John Panipanto -- will leave to BK the lovely smell in his gym locker.
John Perrotta- by 1970 will still be out of step with the band.
Tom Pickens -- by 1970 will still be going through initiation for his fraternity.
Oreste Poliszak -- will establish and manage the most successful garbage disposal plant in the nation.
Tom Quinlan will drive trucks for Poliszak
Tom Rice -- will be batboy for the Mets.
Scott Shales -- will work for a construction firm known as The Wrecking Crew.
Bob Steinorth -- will run the largest mink ranch in Webster.

Don Vella -- will replace Charles Atlas on the back of comics.
Gary Wilbert, Norbert Norkus and Bob Hilfiker will be Welcome Wagon hosts && for Webster.
Bill Vallee -- will have a long career on the parrallel bars provided they are close enough together.
Phil Viruso -- will be first person overcome by an exploding beer can.